

Advertising Terms & Conditions Effective 10/31/16

When you sign, or agree by email or electronic format, and return a Zebra Publishing Inc. (ZPI) Advertising Order form or your own company-generated advertising order form, either of which pertain to ZPI publications and promotions including, but not limited to, Inside Archery, Bowhunt America, the ATA Show Guide & Membership Directory, the ATA Pocket Guide, and/or ZPI-owned websites or mobile apps, you agree to the following:

The Publisher reserves the right to cancel or reject advertising for any reason and at any time, and all orders for advertising are subject to the Publisher's approval. Orders may also be rejected subject to Acts of God, accident, strike, fire, or other occurrences beyond the Publisher's control. The liability for any error, delay, or omission for which it may be held legally responsible shall not exceed the cost of the space paid for and occupied by the error. In no event shall the Publisher be liable for any loss of income, profit, or any consequential damages of any nature whatsoever.

The Publisher assumes no liability for errors or omissions in key contact information or editorial content. All requests made by the Advertiser for positioning, facing editorial adjacencies, separations, or other stipulations are at the sole discretion of the Publisher and cannot be guaranteed.

The Publisher is not responsible for the production quality of furnished inserts and ads, or errors or omissions in such inserts or ads. The Advertiser and/or agency shall be responsible for additional charges incurred by the Publisher arising out of the Advertiser's and/or agency's failure to meet furnished specifications and shall remain liable for the space cost of such inserts or ads in the event they cannot be published. Production costs incurred will be the responsibility of the Advertiser and/or agency.

The Publisher will not be bound by any verbal or printed conditions in the contract, order, copy instructions, or elsewhere which conflict with the provisions of current rate cards or the Terms and Conditions policies of the Publisher. These terms override customer-generated insertion orders.

All ad materials are due by the published Ad Materials due date. If you provide ad instructions and/or ad materials after the given due dates, ZPI will not be responsible for any errors and/or omissions. If you fail to provide ZPI with ad instructions and/or new ad materials, the Publisher may insert your most recent ad that appeared in a ZPI title or promotion including, but not limited to, Inside Archery, Bowhunt America, the ATA Show Guide & Membership Directory, the ATA Pocket Guide, and/or ZPI-owned websites or mobile apps.

Ad cancellations must be received in writing at the office of the publication by the Ad Closing date for that issue or the Publisher may insert the most recent ad appearing toward fulfillment of the contract. Advertisers who fail to fulfill the frequency of ads scheduled on the insertion order will be billed a short-rate charge based on the actual earned frequency rate.

If the Publisher accepts an ad that is past the published Ad Materials due date or does not conform to the Publisher's Advertising Specifications, the Publisher accepts no responsibility for fonts, layout, color, or quality of the ad.

All graphic design work is billed at $120.00 per hour. Fifty percent payment in advance is required for work to begin on all production and graphic design work orders. The balance is due upon completion of the work and the subsequent approval of the ad design. New ad design work will not be released and may not be published until the work order is paid in full.

The Advertiser and its agency, if one is used, will be billed at a rate of $120.00 per hour for additional production work required for preparation and/or modification of artwork you supply that is not in compliance with ZPI Advertising Specifications, effective 10/31/2015, available in ZPI printed media kits or at <http://bowhuntamerica.com/advertise>.

Frequency discounts are determined by the total number of ads run during a publishing year. Short-rates will be charged for ad cancellations based on actual earned frequency rates.

Furthermore, the Advertiser and/or advertising agency are properly authorized to publish the entire contents and subject matter.
